ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The writer would like to list every person who has contributed at least one piece of information such as a date or place but this is impossible. Hopefully, recognition has been given to those individuals as a source after the family information has been presented. I owe special thanks to each and every individual who has contributed in this fashion.

However special recognition and thanks must be given to a few individuals who contributed larger quantities of family information. Raymond Hebb of Elmira, New York obtained the English ancestry of Nicholas Potter which added extra historic information to this genealogy.

I owe special appreciation and thanks to Timothy Sanford for the considerable quantity of Potter information in the Annapolis and Digby counties of Nova Scotia. As a young teenager in the Clementsvale area of Annapolis County he developed an early interest in genealogy and the history of that area. He spent many hours recording names and dates from the gravestones of the cemeteries in the Clementsport-Clementsvale area of Nova Scotia. He also sent me many newspaper clippings relating to the Potter families. After high school and a couple of years working at the Public Archives of Nova Scotia, he moved to the Toronto area of Ontario during the past year and is now working for the Provincial Archives of Ontario. Timothy, I deeply thank you for your contributions which helped make this genealogy possible.

Wayne Walker of Ottawa, Ontario has a deep interest in the family genealogies of Annapolis and Digby counties. He has sent me considerable information that he has gathered on the Potter and related families of that area. He has graciously allowed me to use information from his computer printouts. Thank you, Wayne, for the material which you have sent me in the past few years. It has filled in many names and dates in some families for which I had very little information.

For many years Marion McCormick compiled genealogical information on the families of Annapolis and Digby counties. When she died the large volume of family genealogies were passed on to her sister, Alice Darres of Bear River, Nova Scotia. I visited Alice Darres two different times and obtained over 50 pages of Potter family information which she copied on her copying unit. Information from her is noted as one of the sources of Potter information for the appropriate families. Alice Darres died four or five years ago and it is my understanding that all of that genealogical material and newspaper clippings were donated to the library of Acadia University in Wolfeville, Nova Scotia. It added to their holdings on Baptist records such as those related to the Goat Island and Clementsvale Baptist churches. I spent several hours one afternoon looking at the histories of those two churches.

Somewhere around five or six Potter families moved from Nova Scotia to Saskatchewan. Alfred Potter of Nepean, Ontario has furnished me with information on several of those families for he was born in that area. Thank you, Alfred Potter, for your help and your interest in genealogy.

One of the sources of family information is recorded as coming from the Christian Messenger. Someone in the Spurr family went through several years of that publication and recorded the information pertaining to the Potter families. Vernon Spurr of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia sent me that material. Thank you, Vernon Spurr, for it added some dates of birth, marriage or death that I had not obtained from other sources.

Velma Ferguson of Upper Clements, Nova Scotia and Leland Potter of Berwick, Nova Scotia both contributed genealogical information which helped fill in information for some of the families or gave me names to contact for family information.

My thanks to the many librarians who have assisted me in locating Potter family information in their area. Also thanks to the many town clerks who have permitted me to read the town records and assisted me in searching for Potter information.

Considerable Potter family information has been obtained by correspondence. Every once in a while I have found a valuable contributor to the Potter families in their area. The families presented in Addendum No. Two is a good example of a valuable contributor. To each of these and others who may have just contributed information on a Potter daughter I owe my sincere thanks.

Lastly but not least I owe my sincere gratitude and deepest thanks, patience and encouragement to my dear wife, Claudia, for her countless hours she spent waiting or reading while I went through cemeteries, library books and talking with Potter relatives.

INTRODUCTION

This genealogy is arranged by generations starting with the English ancestors in the Parish of Newport-Pagnel, County Buckinghamshire, England.

Nicholas Potter, the immigrant ancestor, is the first generation, his children are the second generation, his grandchildren the third generation, and so on to the fourteenth generation.

To save space and to avoid repetition as much as possible, only the father, grandfather and great grandfather are listed after an individual and before presenting information on his family. For example, Ephraim Potter in the fourth generation appears as EPHRAIM POTTER (Robert, Robert, Nicholas), b.5 Apr 1683, etc.

For the fifth generation, Theophilus Potter, a son of Ephraim, appears as THEOPHILUS POTTER (Ephraim, Robert, Robert, ...). Note that Nicholas Potter the great great grandfather has been dropped. This procedure is followed throughout the book.

As an introduction to each generation the families presented in that generation are listed with the locality in which they lived if known.

This genealogy concentrates on the male descendants. Information on the Potter daughters only contains the name of the person they married, the date of marriage if known, the names of the children, and where they lived if known. No attempt has been made to follow the families any further.

Immediately following the family information the main source or sources are listed. Many individuals contributed names, dates and places for their immediate family. They are recognized by name and the place they were living when they contributed the information.

The book, "Genealogies of the Potter Families and Their Descendants in America to the Present Generation with Historical and Biographical Sketches," edited by Charles Edward Potter and published in 1888 has one of the ten sections on Nicholas Potter of Lynn, Mass. and Descendants. To save space, when this book is cited as a source of information it is abbreviated as POTTER GENEALOGY, 1888.

Some of the abbreviations used in the book are as follows:

b.	birth or born
bp, bap	baptism
bur.	burial
ca	about
CO	county
d.	died
dau	daughter(s)
DAR	Daughter of American Revolution
int.	intention of marriage
m.	marriage or married
NEHGR	New England Historical and Genealogical Register
WW I	World War I
WW II	World War II

The abbreviations for the states are those currently (1990) used by the postal service.

It must be noted that the date of birth may vary depending upon the source such as vital records, family bibles, family recollection and allied family genealogies. The same differences in date of death apply plus the fact that some dates refer to the date of burial. Of course, there is always the possibility of errors in copying which I do not like to admit but do occur. I hope that errors of this type are at a minimum.

I would certainly appreciate any comments, corrections, additions, etc. that would add to the knowledge on the descendants of Nicholas Potter. Such information should be sent to Frank E. Potter, 30 Sheerman Lane, Amherst, MA 01002.

Copies of the book may also be purchased from the author at the above address.

ENGLISH ANCESTORS OF NICHOLAS POTTER

To the writer's knowledge the only reference to the English ancestry of Nicholas Potter was found in a family sheet at the Family History Library of the LDS Church, Salt Lake City, UT by Orval Woodward of Colfax, CA and he sent me a copy. The family sheet stated that Nicholas Potter came from Newport-Pagnel, England.

The writer has not seen in any histories, genealogies or articles referring to Nicholas Potter any further reference to his place of origin in England. In a way it is hard to believe that any genealogist or Nicholas Potter descendant had not attempted to look for his ancestors in England during the past 100 years. I, the writer, and you, the reader, have Raymond Hebb of Elmira, NY to thank for obtaining information on the Potters of Newport-Pagnell.

During the fall of 1988, Raymond Hebb hired a researcher in England to copy the names of all individuals by the name of Potter in the Parish Register of Newport-Pagnell, county Buckinghamshire, England. Mr. Hebb kindly sent me a copy and it was also published in the mimeographed pamphlet known as "Potter Profiles" compiled by Donna Potter Phillips of Spokane, WA. This pamphlet is published four times a year and consists of about 40 to 50 pages and is devoted to items related to the name Potter. The information on the Potters of Newport-Pagnell is found in Volume 18, page 9, 1989 of that family publication.

The following is from the Parish Registers in the County Offices in Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire, England for the Parish of Newport-Pagnell as sent to me by Mr. Hebb.

The names in bold type are those individuals who are the parents of Nicholas Potter, his brothers and sisters, and his children who were born in England. It would appear that the grandfather of Nicholas was also Nicholas or Nycholas.

The death of Samuel s/o Nicholas 4 Feb 1632 could be a calendar error since he was born 26 Dec 1632.

As can be seen from the above Parish records the parents of Nicholas (Nycholas) Potter were Robert Potter and Elizabeth Marshall. They were married 4 November 1591. The following individuals were the children in that family.

Thomas	bp 10 September 1592
Thomas	bp 25 February 1595
Thomas	bp 25 April 1600
John	bp 18 April 1602
Nycholas	bp 1 April 1604
Robert	bp 15 September 1606
Mary	bp 11 December 1608
Ann	bp 2 February 1610
Susann	bp 18 April 1619

The first two children must have died for the parents named three consecutive children Thomas. Only the death of one Thomas was recorded and that was for the burial on 9 August 1595.

The Robert Potter baptized 15 September 1606 may have been the Robert Potter reported to have been made a "freeman" 3 September 1634 in Lynn, MA and is found in Part 10 of the Potter Genealogy as Robert Potter of Warwick, RI. However there is no proof of such a conclusion. The Robert Potter in the Potter Genealogy is reported to have come from Coventry, England. I will not attempt to unravel the mystery but leave it to other genealogists to solve the place of birth and parents of the Robert Potter of Warwick, RI. It should be pointed out that in the third and subsequent generations of the Potter family in this genealogy there were followers of the Quaker faith. The town of Leicester, MA was a Quaker community and a Quaker cemetery still exists in that town which the author has visited. Robert Potter could have come to Lynn, MA at an early date and his older brother, Nicholas coming later and also going to Lynn after he had heard reports from his brother.

FIRST GENERATION

The first generation is represented by only one individual and that is Nicholas Potter who was born in England and came to New England in the mid 1630s and settled in Lynn, MA and later moved to Salem, MA.

Nicholas Potter, the son of Robert and Elizabeth (Marshall) Potter, was baptized 1 April 1604 in Newport-Pagnell, England. He married Eme Carter, 22 April 1628 in Newport-Pagnell.

They had three children born in England between 1629 and April 1634. Thereafter he sailed for New England in either the summer of 1634 or during 1635. Farmer, in his book "First Settlers of New England," states that Nicholas Potter came to Lynn, MA in 1634. He was a mason and was granted 60 acres of land. Lewis and Newhall in their book on the history of Lynn state that Nicholas Potter arrived in Lynn in 1635. The name of the boat that he sailed on has not been found.

According to Savage in his book, "A Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England," Nicholas Potter was in Lynn in 1651 and was engaged in iron works. He moved to Salem, MA in 1660 and there was called a brick layer.

Nicholas Potter is allotted number 1 in the numbering system used in this genealogy. His children are numbers 2,3,4, etc. The + sign before the name indicates that information on that individual can be found in the next generation.

Issue of Nicholas and Eme (Carter) Potter

+ 2 i Robert, bp, 9 Feb 1629

3 ii Samuel, bp, 26 Dec 1632; buried 4 Feb 1632/3.

4 iii Elizabeth, bp, 8 Apr 1634; m.29 Dec 1652, Thomas Newhall. Their children born in Lynn, MA were Thomas, John, Joseph, Nathaniel, Elizabeth, Elisha, Elizabeth, Mary, Samuel and Rebecca. She d.22 Feb 1686/7.

Nicholas Potter was a respected member of the community in Lynn. His name is frequently seen as a witness to a will, serving on jury and performing other legal duties. He was licensed to draw wine. In the book "Records of Massachusetts," Vol 2, p163 it states "Nicholas Pottr, being chosen by ye town of Linn to draw wine there, is grantd so to do. October 7 1646."

It has not been determined when Eme (Carter) Potter died. It may have been in England, on board ship or in Lynn. It is doubtful that Nicholas Potter would have sailed without someone to take care of the two children under six years of age.

Nicholas Potter married secondly, Alice Weeks (Wickes), widow of Thomas Weeks. No date has been found for their marriage. Alice (Weeks) Potter died 26 January 1658. They had no children.

He married thirdly, Mary Gedney, daughter of John Gedney of Salem, MA. Their marriage date has not been found but based on the date of their first child it must have been soon after the death of his second wife Alice (Weeks) Potter. Their first two children were born in Lynn and the rest of the family in Salem, MA.

SECOND GENERATION

Only one family is represented for the second generation. The family is Robert and Ruth (Driver) Potter of Lynn, MA.

In the Lynn, MA vital records there is recorded the birth of Samuel Potter, 28 March 1657. No specific connection has been found for this individual with the Potter families in this genealogy. Charles Potter, in his book on Potter Genealogies, lists Samuel as a child of Robert Potter but no wife is mentioned and any further reference to him was made. No marriage or death for Samuel was found in the vital records of Lynn or Salem.

The author has found no record to indicate that Robert Potter was married prior to his marriage to Ruth Driver, 25 Jan 1660. Nor has the author found any further reference to Samuel Potter. Therefore, he is not considered to be a son of Robert Potter in this genealogy.

2 ROBERT POTTER (Nicholas), bp. 9 Feb 1629 in the Parish of Newport Pagnell, Buckinghamshire, England son of Nicholas and Eme (Carter) Potter.

The Lynn vital records show the marriage intention of a Nathaniel Potter and Jane Rhodes on 11 Jul 1725. This could be the above Nathaniel Potter, however nothing further has been found to indicate if the marriage took place or what happened to Nathaniel Potter.

36 NATHANIEL POTTER (John, Robert, Nicholas), b.17 Aug 1693 in Lynn, MA, son of John and Elizabeth (Norwood) Potter.

He m.27 Mar 1716, Rebecca (Rebeccah) Baker, dau of Edward and Mary (Marshall) Baker of Lynn. She was b.1 Oct 1692 and d.1754 in Leicester, MA.

Their first five children were born in Lynn and the last two in the town of Leicester. The family moved to Leicester around 1730. His father had preceded him by about ten years.

In 1732 Nathaniel Potter and his brother Joseph declared themselves to the town clerk to be members of the Society of Friends and asked to be relieved from paying certain taxes.

In 1758, the adult members of the Society of Friends included Nathaniel, Nathaniel Jr. and John Potter, all members of this family. One of the communities in Massachusetts at this time with a strong following in the Society of Friends was the town of Leicester.

The Quaker cemetery in that town contains markers identifying some members of this family, including Nathaniel Potter who died in 1768 and his wife, Rebecca, who died in 1754. The author visited this cemetery in 1983.

38 JOHN POTTER (John, Robert, Nicholas), b.9 Apr 1699, in Lynn, MA son of John and Elizabeth (Norwood) Potter. As a young man of about twenty he moved to Leicester, MA with his parents.

He m.29 Dec 1729, Lydia Lamb, dau of Jonathan and Lydia (Death) Lamb of Framingham, MA. She was b.31 Dec 1710 and d.1736 in Leicester.

John Potter m. secondly, Elizabeth Earl(e), dau of William and Anna (Howard) Earl of Leicester. She was b.12 May 1716 and d.1794 in Scituate, RI. The first four children in this family were born in Leicester and the last two in Scituate, RI. The family apparently moved to Scituate between 1745 and 1749.

John Potter was a follower of the Society of Friends and in the book on the History of the Town of Leicester he is listed as a housewright. Some sources indicate that he died in 1775, however his will was dated 28 May 1768 and was proved 30 Dec 1771. Therefore he probably died in 1771.

In his will he mentions his wife, Elizabeth; his sons, Ezra, David, Robert and William; his daughters, Hannah Smith, who was formerly Hannah Salesbury, Lois Mowry, Mary Mathewson, wife of Richard Mathewson, and Sarah (no surname given). Also mentioned were granddaughters, Ruth and Freelove Barnes and grandson, William Barnes, children of Elisha Barnes; grandson, Jonathan Salesbury, son of daughter, Hannah Smith and unnamed children of Lois Mowry.

The will of Elizabeth Potter of Smithfield, RI, widow of John Potter, was dated 19 Oct 1793 and proved 27 Dec 1794. In her will she mentions sons, William and David Potter; daughters, Hannah Smith, Lois Mowry, Sarah Dean, wife of Timothy Dean and Mary Mathewson, wife of Richard Mathewson. 76 iii Robert, b.21 Jul 1735; m.7 Sep 1760, Mariam Aldrich, dau of David Aldrich according to the Scituate, RI vital records. No further information has been found.

Joseph Potter moved his family to North Providence, RI. Three or four of the children were born in Leicester and the rest of the family in North Providence. It should be noted that in listing the ancestors of any individual only three are listed. That is the father, grandfather and great grandfather. This procedure starts with this generation and can be noted by the absence of Nicholas Potter in the ancestor list. Listing of the ancestors in this manner will be followed throughout the rest of this genealogy.

56 JOSEPH POTTER (Ephraim, Robert, Robert,...), b.13 Feb 1713 in Marlborough, MA, son of Ephraim and Sarah (Witt) Potter.

He m.1735, Tibudah Hayden. Only one reference has been found which indicated that Tibudah Hayden was the wife of Joseph Potter. In the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol 86, page 450, 1932, a short paragraph cites the ancestry of Mrs. John Ross Keltie (Louise May Potter, see No.1203). The paragraph shows the ancestors from Louise Potter back to Nicholas Potter and lists Tibudah Hayden as the wife of Joseph Potter.

Joseph Potter lived in Marlborough where his children were born. No entry in the Marlborough vital records shows the death of Mrs. Potter but in the Chute Genealogy it states that she died 4 Apr 1788 at the age of 70 and that Joseph Potter died 1 Apr 1791.

References have been seen which indicated that Joseph Potter was a soldier in the French and Indian War. However, it was probably Joseph Potter, Jr. who also lived in Marlborough and would have been of a more appropriate age for a member of the fighting forces than his father.

It is interesting to note the entry in the Massachusetts Tax Evaluation List of 1771 for the town of Marlborough. Under the name of Joseph Potter it shows his net worth as 6 pounds, 10 shillings. His property included 1 horse, 2 oxen, 4 cattle, 8 goats and sheep, 2 swine, 16 acres of pasture, 6 acres of tillage, 10 acres of fresh meadow and 80 bushels of grain produced during the year. In the book "History of the County of Annapolis Nova Scotia" by Calnek it states that Joseph Potter Sr. took refuge in the area from the dangers and evils of the Revolutionary War. No other reference has been found which would indicate that he went to Nova Scotia. It is known that his two sons, Joseph Jr. and Benjamin, went to Nova Scotia. It is highly doubtful that Joseph Potter Sr. went to Nova Scotia for the 1790 census shows him living by himself in the town of Marlborough. He was probably living in that town a year later at the time of his death, although there is no record of his death in the Marlborough vital records.

98 JOSEPH POTTER (Joseph, Ephraim, Robert,...), b.23 Aug 1741 in Marlborough, MA, son of Joseph and Tibudah (Hayden) Potter.

He m.23 Mar 1762, Zebudah Hayden, dau of Ebenezer and Thankful (Parmenter) Hayden of Sudbury, MA. She was b.26 Jun 1734 and d.24 Jan 1767 in Worcester, MA. In the publication, "Inscriptions from the Old Burial Grounds in Worcester, MA from 1727-1859" published by the Worcester Society of Antiquity in 1878 is found the following under the section on Old Burial Grounds on the Common, "In memory of Mrs. Zebudah Potter, wife of Joseph Potter, who died Jan 24, 1767, age 33 years, 5 months and 23 days." She died when her daughter, Zebudah, was born.

Joseph Potter enlisted in a regiment of troops raised by Gov. William Shirley and commanded by Col. Jonathan Bailey for active service in the seven year war between England and France from 1755 to 1763. He saw battle at Fort Ticonderoga in 1758 and at Fort Edward a year later.

For his military service and loyalty to England, he was awarded a loyalist land grant in Nova Scotia. In the book on the History of Digby County, Nova Scotia it states that Joseph Potter, Jr. emigrated to Nova Scotia immediately after the peace of 1763 and located at what is now known as Smith's Cove. After exchanging lots at least once he finally exchanged lots again and located at Potter's Point in Upper Clements on approximately 500 acres in 1783. One should consult the publications dealing with loyalist grants for the exact details and lot numbers that were drawn by Joseph Potter.

In view of the fact that the children by his first wife, Zebudah, were born in Worcester, MA between 1762 and 1767, the writer is inclined to believe that Joseph Potter did not go to Nova Scotia to stay until after 1767. He may have made a trip to Nova Scotia to draw the lots and make the necessary preliminary requirements to obtain ownership. The year that he finally went to Nova Scotia has not been found.

It should be further noted that his second marriage occurred in Nova Scotia in 1772. He married Mary Farnsworth, dau of Amos and Lydia (Longley) Farnsworth. She was b.24 Feb 1752 in Groton, MA. Their children were born in the Clements area of Nova Scotia. She d.30 Jun 1790. In the winter of 1798-9, Joseph Potter sailed for New York to seek funds to build an iron works at Moose River to process the iron ore found on his property. Unfortunately he was lost at sea on this trip. Administration of his estate was applied for by his sons, Israel, Joseph and Samuel on 15 April 1799.

Issue of Joseph and Zebudah (Hayden) Potter

152 i Aaron, b.11 Jun 1762 in Worcester, MA. Some references state that he d. young. However, in the pension application by the descendants of Israel Potter, the statement is made that he served in the same unit with his brother Aaron. He must have died before 1799 for he was not mentioned as a son in the settling of his father's estate during the next year.

+ 153 ii Israel, b.28 Nov 1763.

154 iii Mary, b.7 Feb 1766; bp.23 Mar 1766; emigrated to Annapolis Co, N.S. and m.21 Apr 1785, Capt John Rice son of Mathais and Mary Rice. Sarah Smith was his first wife. Their children were Joseph and James. She m. secondly, Capt Henry Harris in 1821. She d.3 Dec 1858.

100 BENJAMIN POTTER (Joseph, Ephraim, Robert,...), bp.9 May 1749 in Marlborough, MA son of Joseph and Tibudah (Hayden) Potter.

He m.24 Feb 1774, Sarah Angier, dau of Benjamin Angier. She was b.24 Jun 1747 in Framingham, MA. The Marlborough vital records show the birth of all of the children in that town. They apparently lived in Fitzwilliam, NH for a short period of time, for in the book "History of Fitzwilliam, NH," it states that Benjamin and Sarah Potter were admitted to the church on 15 Oct 1775 and their daughter, Molly was baptized on that date. No other entry in Fitzwilliam was found for this family. It should be noted that Ebenezer, a brother of Benjamin, lived in Fitzwilliam.

In the book on the genealogy of the Chute family information on this family differs from that contained in the Marlborough vital records. it also states that Benjamin Potter died in Clements, Nova Scotia, 16 Jan 1823. No other record of his death has been found, nor has any date for the death of his wife been located.

The 1790 census of Marlborough lists for the Benjamin Potter family 3 males under 16, 1 over 16 and 5 females.

In the book on the "History of the County of Annapolis, Nova Scotia" it states that Benjamin Potter was in the county in 1779. This is probably incorrect for his children were born in Marlborough, MA after that date. Based on census data it can be assumed that he moved the family to Nova Scotia sometime in the 1790s. Apparently only part of the family went to Nova Scotia for his son, Joseph, married and lived in Framingham, MA. Benjamin Potter was without a doubt attracted to Nova Scotia by his older brother, Joseph.

153 ISRAEL POTTER (Joseph, Joseph, Ephraim,...) b.28 Nov 1763 in Worcester, MA son of Joseph and Zebudah (Hayden) Potter.

He enlisted in the Revolutionary War in 1780 at the age of 17 for a period of six months in the 5th Massachusetts Regiment at Springfield, MA. He was discharged 18 Dec 1780.

In the publication Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, Israel Potter was reported to be 5 feet 7 inches in height and of light complexion.

After his military service he went to Nova Scotia to join his father and other members of his father's family. He m.7 Jan 1786, Mary Rice, dau of John and Sarah (Smith) Rice. She was born in 1768 and d.7 Mar 1849. They were married for 61 years.

The first few years of their married life were spent in the Clements, N.S. area. In 1790 the family moved to Upper Granville, N.S. where they lived for the next ten years.

About 1800 after the death of his father the family returned to Clements and lived on his father's estate known as Potters Point.

Israel Potter was engaged in farming, fishing, lumbering, brick making and ship building. He also served as Captain of the Militia in the War of 1812.

The first school in Clements was established by Israel Potter and he actively participated in other community affairs. He was very active in the preaching of the Gospel and other religious activities and contributions. Before any church was built he conducted the services in the kitchen of his home.

He was called to preach about 1810-12 and was ordained to the ministry in 1822. He was one of the founders of the Goat Island Baptist Church located in Clements directly across from Goat Island in the bay. The church is reported to be the oldest Baptist church building in Canada.

Not only was he pastor of this church but he frequently traveled to the neighboring communities where he conducted religious services. He was also minister of the United Baptist Church in Clementsvale. In later years he was assisted in his pastoral duties by his son, Israel Potter, Jr.

In the Goat Island Baptist Church on 18 August 1909 a plaque was dedicated to Israel Potter. This plaque reads as follows, "Erected to the memory of Rev Israel Potter born in Worcester, Mass USA in 1763. A soldier in the American Revolution at 17, moved to Clements, Nova Scotia and established the first school there. Founded and was pastor of this church for 40 years. Died at Potter's Point August 17, 1847. He was succeeded by his son, Rev Israel Potter, Junior."

In recent years church services are conducted in this church once during the summer months. The heating system has never been updated from the old wood burning stove. The writer had the privilege of attending church services in this church during the Potter-Ruggles reunion in 1983.

Israel's eyesight gradually failed him in his last few years of his life. He d.17 Aug 1847. Both he and his wife were buried in the cemetery adjacent to the Goat Island Baptist Church. Gravestones exist for them as well as several members of other Potter families.

Israel and Mary Potter were married for a little over 61 years. They were blessed with 15 children and 14 were married. When Israel Potter died he was survived by his wife, 12 children, 81 grandchildren and at least 16 great grandchildren.

Several sons in this family were seafaring individuals. Joseph, Charles, Franklin and Thomas were all known as sea captains. Joseph and Thomas were both lost at sea.

To assist in understanding some of the deaths at an early age in this family it is well to refer to the will of Franklin Potter dated 14 Jul 1851.

He mentions his sons George B, Edward James and Franklin Jr.; his daughters Mehitable and Phoebe Potter, Mary Ann Payson and Cynthia Southern; grandchildren Abigail, daughter of Joseph Potter, and Elizabeth Armstrong Potter. She was the daughter of Charles and Cynthia (White) Potter.

It is interesting to note that he did not mention the two children of his son, William and Ann (Welch) Potter. William had died in 1841. Did Ann (Welch) Potter remarry and the children's names changed to the new family name? No information has been found on these two children. Franklin Potter was known as Deacon and he d.12 Jul 1851 at Clare, N.S.

217 WILLIAM POTTER (Barnabus, Theophilus, Ephraim, ...), b.3 Dec 1778 in Brookfield, MA son of Barnabus and Mary (Taylor) Potter.

According to the book "History of Chesterfield, MA," the family of Barnabus Potter was one of the early settlers of that town. Before he was ten years old his parents moved the family to Waterford, VT.

He m.13 Mar 1800 in Wheelock, VT Mary Dearborn, dau of Sherburne and Mary (Kenniston) Dearborn. She was b.23 Apr 1780 in Northwood, NH.

Their first child was born in Waterford, VT. The place of birth for the rest of the family was not found. However, they could have easily been in the neighboring town of Barnet. The town records for Barnet were destroyed by fire.

Census information shows the family in Waterford in 1800 and in St Johnsbury, VT in 1820. The family moved to Barnston, Quebec, Canada around 1824/5. The town is located a few miles from the Vermont border. They remained in that area for about the next ten years.

Mary Potter along with at least two of the children, Bethuel and Stillman, emigrated to Washington Township, Erie County, PA around 1833/4. The 1850 census of Washington Township shows Mary Potter, age 71 and A.A. Potter, female age 32, in the Bethuel Potter household. This could have been her daughter, Amy. When William Potter died has not been found.

In Scituate, RI the gravestone records show Mrs Tamor Potter, wife of Otis, d.3 Mar 1850 aged 41 years, 7 months and 15 days and Welcome A Potter, son, d.6 Jul 1834, age 2 yrs, 3 mos and 26 days. The will of Tamor Aldrich Potter, dau of Abigail Aldrich of Scituate, dated 31 Dec 1849 and proved 8 Apr 1850 mentions her sons, Jonathan A, Ezra A and George A Potter and a daughter, Harriet. Therefore substantial evidence exists to indicate that the Welcome Potter who married Mary Slocum on 29 May 1858 was from another family.

He m.20 Dec 1827, Martha Lewis, dau of John and Jemma Lewis of Long Island, N.S. She was b.1809. They apparently lived in Clementsvale, N.S. the first few years of their married life.

The Clementsvale Baptist Church records state that Warren and Martha Potter were dismissed from that church to the First Church of Hillsburg on 2 April 1842.

There were apparently children in this family but how many or their names have not been fully determined. The Christian Messenger of 1 Feb 1850 reported the marriage of Charles Nichols to Martha J, eldest daughter of Mr. W.H. Potter of Hillsburg.

The 1861 census lists 1 male, age 3-4; 1 female, age 15-20; 1 female age 20-30; all living with Martha Potter in Hillsburg. At the time of the 1771 census, a Herbert Potter, age 14, is listed as living at home with his mother, Martha Potter.

To add to the confusion, the will of Silas Potter, a brother of Warren Potter, dated 1891, states that Warren Potter was deceased and no children were indicated.

Warren Potter d.28 Jul 1859 at the age of 62 years according to a marker in the Goat Island Baptist Church cemetery.

516 HENRY LANGDON POTTER (Leonard, Abijah, Theophilus, ...), b.26 Mar 1828 in Tyringham, MA, son of Leonard and Emeline (Brewer) Potter.

According to the History of Great Barrington, MA, as a young man Henry Potter went to New Orleans, LA and established a paper mill in 1848. His brother, Edwin, must have went with him for Edwin died in that city in 1853.

Upon his return to Massachusetts, he apparently made the first successful attempts towards harnessing the water power from the Housatonic river in 1852. He built a paper mill on the Housatonic in 1853 and it was destroyed by fire in 1854/5.

Either H.D. Cone or Owen and Hurlbert purchased the property and continued the paper business started by Henry Potter. In 1855, he was admitted to the bar and practiced law in New York state until he entered the military service in 1861.

Henry Potter had a notable military career. According to the obituary in the Boston Evening Transcript dated 1 April 1907, his military career dates back to 1856-8 when he joined Gen Walker's command in the Nicaraguan episode. He was at that time Assistant Secretary of War.

After returning from the campaign, he became Lt Col of the 71st Regiment, New York Volunteers, leading it through the Civil War.

He took part in 16 battles and received 6 bullet wounds. He was also crushed by his horse which was killed under him. He was a member of the Legion of Honor. His Civil War record shows Lt Col, 18 Jul 1861; Col, 1 May 1863; discharged 31 Dec 1864.

According to his obituary in the Berkshire Courier he was a man of small stature, weighing scarcely 125 pounds but he was courageous almost to the point of recklessness.

He m.9 Oct 1852, Elsie Givandan, dau of Jean Givandan. She was born in Geneva, Switzerland. It is not known where their children were born. Henry Potter d.30 Mar 1907 in Rahway, NJ.

722 JAMES WALLACE POTTER (Henry, Benjamin, Joseph, ...), b.1841 in Hillsburg (now Smith's Cove), N.S., son of Henry and Mary (Watt) Potter.

It is believed that James Potter was the son of Henry and Mary (Watt) Potter, the only child of the second marriage. No evidence has been found to confirm this connection, however there is material which substantiates this relationship. Some Potter family historical information indicated that he was the son of William and Abigail (Simpson) Potter, a brother of Henry.

Items which tend to show that he is not the son of William Potter include the 1861 census which shows two males in the household of William Potter, the father and the known son. The Chute Genealogy states that William Potter had four children.

In the Christian Messenger, the marriage announcement of Cordelia Potter states that she was the third daughter of William Potter. Therefore the three daughters and the one son would make the four children.

The strongest evidence found to substantiate the belief that James was the son of Henry and Mary (Watt) Potter involves the census and a marker in the Smith's Cove cemetery. The 1871 and 1881 census of the James Potter household in Hillsburg shows Mary Potter, a widow, living in the household. Her age was listed as 68 and 78 respectively. The marker in the Smith's Cove cemetery shows Mary Potter listed on the same marker as Lois Potter and four of her children. Based on the cemetery marker and census data, Mary Potter would have been about 38 or 39 when James was born.

Based on the above material the author believes that James was the son of Henry and Mary (Watt) Potter. Unfortunately, no probate records were found for Henry Potter.

ADDENDUM NO. 1

David Potter

In the fifth generation of this genealogy a David Potter No 81, son of John and Elizabeth Potter of Scituate, RI, refers the reader to the Addendum.

The writer of this genealogy has been unable to find anything definite on the life of this David Potter in any New England or New York records. Charles Potter in the 1888 Potter Genealogy book lists several families in Part 10 under Robert Potter of Warwick, RI that were descendants of Nicholas Potter. These families are found on pages 28 to 31 under Robert Potter.

The writer has presented the families on pages 28 and 29 in the proper places in this genealogy. At the bottom of page 29 Charles Potter presented the family David and _____ Potter with two children, Philo and Kelita. In the family of John and Elizabeth Potter a David Potter was a younger brother of William Potter whose family and descendants were presented immediately before this entry of David Potter. Charles Potter must have had some evidence that he was a brother to William Potter.

David Potter was living in 1793 for he is mentioned in his mother's will as he was mentioned in his father's will a few years earlier. No mention of where he lived was indicated in the wills.

The unusual names of Philo and Kelita provide strong leads to the location of David Potter compared to common names such as John, James, Robert, etc. A David Potter with two children by the names of Philo and Kelita is found in New Providence, NJ.

Harold Potter of Gunnee, IL extensively researched his Potter ancestors. In 1983 he published his efforts in a book of 153 pages entitled "The Ancestors and Descendants of Adam Potter and Rosannah Layman." Only a limited number of copies were printed.

He traced his Potter line back to a David Potter in New Providence, NJ and found no specific indications that he came from RI or any other area.

In addition to Harold Potter a few other individuals have traced their ancestors back to David Potter and assumed that he was a descendant of Robert Potter as indicated in the Potter Genealogy. At least one researcher presented some indications that this David Potter was a descendant of the New Haven Potter line as presented in the 1888 Potter Genealogy book.

Based on the above information there is a strong possibility that David Potter of New Providence, NJ was the son of John and Elizabeth (Earl) Potter of Scituate, RI. There is no definite proof but the writer feels that he should be included as a possible descendant of Nicholas Potter. The writer has information on about 50 families that are descendants of David and Sarah (Minton) Potter. More research is necessary to confirm this assumption on David Potter.

David Potter is listed as number 81 in the main portion of this book. The known information on David Potter and his family is presented below.

81 DAVID POTTER (John, John, Robert, ...), b.16 Aug 1749 in Scituate, RI, son of John and Elizabeth (Earl) Potter.

He m.10 Dec 1766 Sarah Minthorne (name later changed to Minton) in the Presbyterian Church of New Providence, NJ. Sarah Minton was the dau of Philo and Elizabeth (Hapenny) Minton. She was b.21 Sep 1749 and died in 1828. She was possibly buried in the Quaker Providence Meeting House cemetery, two miles west of Perryopolis, Fayette County, PA.

The family moved from New Providence and settled in Allegany County, MD around 1789. David Potter d. ca 1805, probably in Allegany County. The family was in that county for the 1800 census.
